

Deer Wintering Areas Workshop

December 10, 2007

Black Bear Inn

Orono, Maine

Time	Presentation
9:00 - 9:15	Introduction Welcome and Overview Spencer Meyer, U. Maine Cooperative Forestry Research Unit Munsungan Series - Center for Research on Sustainable Forests Dr. Bruce Wiersma, U. Maine Center for Research on Sustainable Forests
9:15 - 10:30	Deer Wintering Area Background Problem Statement Mark Stadler, Maine Inland Fisheries and Wildlife Historical Perspective Dr. William Krohn, Maine Cooperative Fish and Wildlife Research Unit Status of Maine's Deer Herd Lee Kantar, Maine Inland Fisheries and Wildlife
10:30 - 10:45	Break
10:45 - 12:00	Limiting Factors Predators Dr. Dan Harrison, U. Maine Department of Wildlife Ecology Habitat Ariane Massé, Ph.D. candidate, NSERC-Produits Anticosti Industrial Research Chair, Centre d'étude nordiques, Université Laval Foods and Nutrition Dr. Fred Servello, U. Maine Department of Wildlife Ecology
12:00 - 1:00	Lunch
1:00 - 2:15	Landowner Perspectives Irving Woodlands John Gilbert, J.D. Irving, Limited A Maine Public Lands Perspective on Deer Yard Management Joe Wiley, Maine Inland Fisheries and Wildlife A Strategy for the Management of Deer Wintering Areas in Maine Mark Doty, Plum Creek Timber Company
2:15 - 3:05	Case Studies Cooperative agreements Mark Stadler, Maine Inland Fisheries and Wildlife Predator/deer monitoring in New Brunswick Rod Cumberland, New Brunswick Department of Natural Resources
3:05 - 3:15	Break
3:15 - 4:30	Panel Discussion Moderated question and answer session with all speakers
4:30	Adjourn