Summer session residents will be housed in York Hall, a traditional residence hall consisting of double rooms, with a kitchen on the first floor. Actual room assignments will be made upon arrival at the reception desk in York Hall. Reception Desk hours will be included in your confirmation email that will be sent to you following receipt of your application for summer housing. The University will attempt to assign you to the type of room you request, but all charges will reflect the actual type of room to which you are assigned.

*Please note that registration in a University Summer Session course is required to be eligible for Summer Session student housing. Please list Summer Session courses below:
