

Provided to you by
The Maine Gerontological Society
with members in mind.

November 2008

Hot Topics in Aging

Providing you with quick information on the latest in aging issues

New books promoting evidence-based programs and interventions for people with dementia from Venture Publishing are available at <http://www.venturepublish.com/>. The company prides itself on publishing books that specialize in "Recreation and Leisure Studies, Therapeutic Recreation, Activity Programming, Public, Private and Commercial Recreation and Long-Term Care".

MetLife Mature Market Institute Announces the Availability of Six New "Helpful Hint" Publications on Caregiving and Long-Term Care, which are available free to the public via MarketWatch. Produced in conjunction with the National Alliance for Caregiving, Helpful Hints include practical tips on care in a variety of settings. To read the full story, click on:
<http://www.marketwatch.com/news/story/metlife-mature-market-institute-announces/story.aspx?guid=%7BFACC4483-5B19-4753-9498-OE1A15AF41FC%7D&dist=hppr>

The ElderCare locator is used across the country as a means of connecting to grass roots services for elders and their families. Offered by the U.S. Administration on Aging as a public service, the ElderCare locator now has a streamlined access which is available by clicking (www.eldercare.gov). Searches are conducted by entering a Zip Code, City, and/or County name. Selections of topics are offered for refined searches.