

SAVE THE DATE!

Tuesday, April 6, 2010

Full program and registration materials coming very soon!

Sexuality and Aging: Dispelling the Myths

(The Sixth Annual University of Maine Geriatric Colloquium)

Point Lookout Resort and Conference Center

Northport, ME

Including presentations and special training by:

Marilyn R. Gugliucci, Ph.D.
Director, Geriatric Education and Research
University of New England, Biddeford, Maine

&

SAGE
Services & Advocacy for GLBT Elders

This all day conference will address issues on:

- Affirmative Home Health Care
- Sexuality and Gender Identity in Extended Care Housing
  - Managing Affirmative Retirement Housing
  - Diversity in Senior Center Membership
    - Sexuality and Chronic Illness
- Legal and Practical Issues for Same-Sex Aging Couples
  - Aging with HIV
- Clinical Issues When Addressing Sexuality with Elders
  - Ethics and Cultural Understanding

Who should attend?

Nurses, Social Workers, Counselors, CNAs, Nursing Home Administrators, Home Health Workers, Elders, Care Providers, Psychologists, Gerontologists, Geriatricians, Physicians, and Allied Health Professionals

Location:

This conference will be held at Point Lookout, the beautiful coastal resort in Northport, Maine

Sponsored by:

University of Maine School of Social Work
Hartford Partnership Program for Aging Education
at the University of Maine
University of Maine Center on Aging
Sexuality and Aging Colloquium Planning Committee

Supported by:

Maine Community Foundation Equity Fund

---

For more information contact

University of Maine Center on Aging

207-262-7920