

DSRRN

Stakeholders Workshop

"Restoration: Expectations & Research Directions"

November 14, 2008, 9am - 1:15 pm

Senator George J. Mitchell Center for Environmental & Watershed Research

Norman Smith Hall

University of Maine, Orono, Maine

Workshop Objectives:

- Introduce DSRRN & the objectives of the network
- Identify restoration goals of stakeholders
- Gather information to identify research questions

Workshop Activities:

- Stakeholder observations, stories, photos, theories
- Discuss stakeholder ideas on monitoring, science directions, & stakeholder science needs

Workshop Products:

- Network of local resource users
- List of stakeholder goals & needs
- Research questions to tackle at the Spring Science Meeting

SCHEDULE

- 8:45 – 9:00 am Arrive, pick up parking pass, get badges, grab a cup of coffee & muffin
- 9:00 - 9:30 am Welcome & Introduction to DSRRN - Karen Wilson (USM)
Peter Vaux (UM/GMC), Adria Elskus (USGS/UM), David Hart (GMC)
Brief participant introductions: name/occupation/interest in restoration/river
- 9:30 - 10:45 am Discuss restoration goals & expectations: stakeholder questionnaire
Led by Elskus/Wilson
- 10:45 - 11:00 Break
- 11:00 - 12:00 Identify monitoring needs, theories, science directions
- 12:00 - 1:00 Working Lunch (provided)
- 1:00- 1:15 pm Synthesis & Wrap up - Karen Wilson
- 1:15 – 2:00 pm Optional Networking Time