

Call for Papers and Posters

The SER Mid-Atlantic Chapter 7th Annual Conference, in collaboration with the SER New England Chapter:

Restoration on the Edge

Exploring the frontiers of restoration, collaboration, and resilience in changing ecosystems

March 23-24, 2012 - Brooklyn College, City University of New York

The SER Mid-Atlantic and New England Chapters are now accepting abstracts for papers and posters to be considered for inclusion in their joint 2012 annual conference program.

The selected contributed papers will be delivered during afternoon concurrent sessions on March 23, 2012. Each presenter will be given 20 minutes.

The selected posters will be displayed throughout the day and presented during a "Poster Pub" after the sessions.

Contributed papers and posters may pertain to, but are not limited to, these subject areas:

- Prevention and restoration of biodiversity loss
- Ecosystem resilience
- Novel ecosystems
- Global climate changes affecting ecological community composition
- Trends in invasive species distribution related to urban systems
- Design of sustainable landscapes
- Green infrastructure connections to ecological restoration
- Agro-ecology connections to ecological restoration
- Management of sites experiencing ecological change
- Ecosystem services and economics
- Re-establishing landscape connectivity
- Successes, failures, and current status of restoration projects (case studies welcome)
- Design of future restoration projects

Approximately 300 restoration practitioners, scientists, administrators, environmental engineers, landscape architects, land stewards, students, and others are expected to attend the conference.

Please send abstracts for papers and posters to: Laura Whalen at lwhalen@delawareestuary.org by January 13, 2012. Indicate whether you are proposing a talk or a poster or both, and provide the following information:

- Paper/Poster title
- Abstract (no longer than 1 page)
- Name, affiliation and contact information (phone number and email)

Applicants will be notified of the selection committee's decisions by February 3, 2012.
