

Helping Students with Disabilities

Our Approach-Avoidance Response

Have you ever...

- worked with a student you thought might have a disability but were nervous about what to say?
- worried that what you might say or do would inadvertently harm rather than help a student with a disability?
- worried that when offering assistance to a student with a disability you might be overwhelmed by his or her "need"?
- worried that what you say or do regarding a student with a disability might result in your being sued?

This workshop will focus on identifying and assisting students with disabilities and dealing with our fears as we do so. Please join us.

An interactive workshop led by:

Ann Smith, Director of Disability Services

and

Sara Henry, Disability Counselor

October 30, 2009

(Friday)

10:00 – 12:00 p.m.

Coe Room,
Memorial Union
(2nd floor)

Space is limited.

Please register by

October 26

by calling 581-3472, or e-mail

CTE@umit.maine.edu

This event is free and open to all UMaine faculty, instructors, staff, and graduate students interested in teaching

Supported by the Adelaide C. and Alan L. Bird Fund for Instructional and Faculty Development

Center for Teaching Excellence, 212 Crossland Hall

✧ Peer Consulting ✧ Teaching Library ✧ New Faculty Events ✧ Workshops ✧ Discussions ✧
Web Site: www.umaine.edu/teaching